

Legends in Glass Exhibition 2000

Cameo by Jonathan Harris

‘Orchard’

Cameo vase with clear foot. (Approx. 17cm high.)

Cameo oval perfume bottle. (Approx. 7cm high and 10cm diameter.) Multiple layered enamels comprising, sargassogrun, turmalin, citronengelb and Bristolgrun fused with a deep band of silver leaf.

A refined design of summer fruits and berries, nestling amongst the surrounding vines and foliage, skilfully carved from the silver leaf and richness of the enamel colours

‘Scrolled Border’

A four-layered cameo open bowl with clear pad and foot. (Approx. 16cm high and 16cm diameter.)

A steel blue core overlaid with Bristolgrun, sterling silver leaf and finished with a multiple layered band of silver leaf around the edge of the rim.

This elaborate design incorporates a stylised leaf interlocking with a scrolled decorative border, carved into the silver leaf band around the rim. The piece is complimented further by the decoration around the middle and base of this exquisitely decorated bowl.

‘Summer Fruits’

A four-cased cameo amphora vase with flared rim. (Approx. 16cm high.)

A blue core overlaid with steel blue, mountain blue and a multiple layer of silver leaf.

This mirage of summer fruits and foliage envelop this delightful piece. The design has been skilfully carved to reveal the intricate detail of ripened fruits and berries, leaf and foliage. The fluidity and warmth of this technique is successfully combined with the cool blues and precious silver leaf.

Re-heat Cameo (Hybrid technique which combines classic cameo and Gräal.) A highly skilled and specialised three-stage technique, which allows the intricate designs more freedom, movement and fluidity.

‘Garden of Flowers’

A four-cased cameo amphora vase with flared rim. (Approx. 21cm high.)

Gold ruby core overlaid with steel blue, mountain blue and a multiple layered band of 22ct gold leaf fused around the shoulder of the vase.

This ethereal design depicts the beauty and nature's splendours of the summer garden in full bloom. An abundance of detailed floral specimens and foliage encased within the surface of this magnificent vase. The design is further enhanced by the majestic richness of the gold leaf, revealing the wonderful collaboration of the gold ruby and blue enamels to unveil the warmth golden amethyst.